NARRATIVE:

Ernest Culp has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include multiple cases of assault with a deadly weapon, multiple cases of battery on a peace officer with injury, robbery, multiple burglaries, receiving stolen property, multiple cases of petty theft, tampering, possession of burglary tools and possession of controlled substances and trespassing. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 13 year term for robbery. Culp was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 29, 2017. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2017 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Culp qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
